

Dear Sir,

We are pleased to inform you that IMC Chamber of Commerce and Industry has initiated an online series e-Diplomacy Dialogue to learn from Diplomats in Indian Missions abroad the emerging opportunities for bilateral collaboration for trade and industry for India in the post-pandemic world.

We would like to invite you to attend the first in series of e-Diplomacy Dialogue with Dr. Manoj Kumar Mohapatra, Minister (Commerce), Embassy of India, Washington DC on Friday, June 05, 2020 at 07.30 p.m.

As the whole world is fighting a war with coronavirus, new paradigms shifts in international relations are shaping up. India and the United States have seen strengthening of their economic and political ties during this ongoing COVID period although there have been ups and down but new narratives are clearly emerging in the background of changing geopolitics situation.

This interaction will offer insight into what are the new challenges and opportunities that would define Indo-US relationship and the role of diplomacy in transforming the relationship and facilitating bilateral trade in the changing dynamics in the times of COVID-19.

For registrations and further details please contact Ms. Vanita Ghuge at vanita.ghuge@imcnet.org

We look forward to your participation.

With regards,

Ajit Mangrulkar
Director General
IMC Chamber of Commerce and Industry
