THE SOUTHERN GUJARAT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE & INDUSTRY

(An ISO 9001 : 2008 Certified Organisation)

1. SHRI NIMISH VASHI AWARD FOR OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCE IN ENVIRONMENT CONSERVATION POLLUTION CONTROL:

Environment conservation being important global need of the hour, the award will be conferred to the nominee who has made pioneering efforts in greening the surroundings through plantation and afforestation, in evolving the manufacturing processes so as to emit less pollutants, in developing eco-friendly products, in taking elaborate measures for management of liquid and solid wastes and fugitive emissions, etc. Due consideration will also be given to the efforts made in promoting awareness programs for Good Housekeeping, as well as to the R&D Program for promoting processes & products towards pollution control & environment improvements.

2. SHRI RATILAL TRIBHOVANDAS NANAVATI AWARD FOR OUTSTANDING WORK IN R&D:

The award is aimed at encouraging the efforts to promote Research and Development activity which has so far not assumed enough importance compared to more developed countries of the world. It may be either concerning your own particular processes or products or in the general area of pollution control, energy conservation or cost reduction or productivity improvement. Basic and original research program will obviously find better consideration.

3. COLOURTEX AWARD FOR OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCE IN ENERGY CONSERVATION

Energy being vital global and national resource, every effort must be made in the direction of consuming less energy through use of improved processes, new products and innovative technology. Utilization of alternate sources as well as renewable sources of energy and promotion of awareness programs at household, school, community level and business premises will be also considered. Emphasis will be given to the research and development programme if any, to evolve energy saving processes of products.

4. AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN IMPROVING PRODUCTIVITY

In the modern, globally competitive scenario, cost is an important feature which can be controlled through improved productivity. The consideration will be given to the efforts made in last few years to improve the output with the same input or to improve the production through installation of balancing equipment to augment the capacity. The emphasis will be also given for improving the cost to production ratio through modification of processes or expansion programme. The comparative statements of at least last three years with the above details will help evaluate the entries better.

5. AWARD FOR OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT IN SOCIAL WELFARE PROGRAMMES BY BUSINESS HOUSE:

It is an accepted fact that the huge amount of inputs required to improve the standards of living of large human resources through providing food, potable water, shelter, education, good medical care, eco friendly atmosphere to live and work, sports and leisure facilities cannot be met with by government alone. The Business Houses as well have to play decisive and concrete role in fund requirement for meeting the needs of various circumstances that arise from time to time like flood, famine, earthquake, communal disharmony, epidemics etc.

The Business Houses are expected to discharge their social responsibilities in the command area of their activities or at the state or national level through various social upliftment programs. The entry should provide full account of all the work done by way of social welfare program.

6. AWARD FOR OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT IN SOCIAL WELFARE PROGRAMMES BY NGO:

It is accepted fact that the huge amount of inputs required to improve the standard of living of large human resources through providing food, potable water, shelter, education, good medical care, eco friendly atmosphere to live and work, sports and leisure facilities cannot be met with by government alone. Both the Business Houses as well as the NGO's have to play decisive and concrete role in sharing the burden of the administration.

The NGOs are expected to discharge their role through educational program, awareness program, mobilizing, human resources and have to play decisive and concrete role in sharing the burden of the administration and also to provide awareness, counseling and assistance on regular basis to mitigate the day to day problems or the need of the community.
